

Feature Job

This issue's Feature Job is the Wallace Creek Regimental Complex, Phase 2 at Camp Lejeune in Jacksonville, North Carolina. The management team for this project consisted of Wes Fienman – Whiting Turner's Project Manager, Bill Loudermilk – Whiting Turner's Superintendent, Anthony Munsey and Brandon Thompson - Ace's Project Managers and Daniel Mixon – Ace's Superintendent. Bob Baca, Chad Calhoun, Jason Chupa, Josh Lucas, Michael Mixon, Charles Moore, Danny O'leary, Matt Snyder and Chris Thomas also participated in the electrical installation.

This project consisted of two five-story barracks buildings, a 400,000 square-foot, five story parking deck (with a full LED lighting package throughout), two laundry facilities, a lounge with kitchen, gaming stations and a theater area. The two barracks are a combined 231,000 square-foot with the larger barracks capable of housing 804 Marines and the smaller housing 268.

Ace Electric, Inc. would like to thank Whiting-Turner for allowing us to be part of another successful project and we congratulate Camp Lejeune on their new facilities.

Energy Audit

Dale Flythe, Brian Geary, Scott Pattillo, Philip Poole and Tina Worms recently participated in a Public-Private partnership webinar, providing insight on how private companies can work with public entities to develop alternative methods to finance public capital improvement projects which may create win-win opportunities in these uncertain times.

Ace encourages our customers to contact us about a no-cost energy audit to assist in achieving lower energy costs. As a result of implementing energy-reducing products or methods and to offset costs of the upgrades, certain energy credits may be available to the customer from the government and/or local utilities. Ace will assist customers in applying for these credits.

Happenings

Tina Worms attended the Jacksonville Defense Logistics Conference on July 30th which provided an overview of future planning in Jacksonville, FL for the Port Authority, Corps of Engineers and Airfield Projects. She also attended the US General Service Administration's Reverse Auction Seminar given by the GSA's Customer Service Director, Linda Hosey, in Jacksonville, FL on September 19th.

Anthony Munsey and his wife, Allison, welcomed their third son, William Tanner, on August 26th. William weighed 8 pounds 3 ounces, was 21 inches long and has two proud brothers, Gavin (age 6) and Heath (age 4). Congratulations to the Munseys!

The Whiting-Turner Contracting Co. presented Ace Electric a safety award in recognition of two million man hours worked with no lost time accidents on the Wallace Creek Regimental Complex. Chad Calhoun, Josh Lucas, Austin Merriman, Daniel Mixon and Anthony Munsey were all presented certificates for this achievement. Great job, guys!

On September 6th, Todd Hawkins, Georgia Training Director of the IEC (Independent Electrical Contractors) attended a luncheon at Ace to kickoff the start of our fourth in-house Apprenticeship Class. We would like to offer encouragement as these students begin this four-year endeavor to become journeymen electricians. On a related note, Joe Montgomery, Chad Pappas, Tavaris Sharp, Eric Uneless and Jacob Young have recently started their fourth and final year of Ace's third in-house Apprenticeship Class. Good luck to all of you!

On October 3rd, Reuben Bennett and Brian Geary attended a Career in Construction Fair at Wiregrass Technical College in Valdosta, Georgia. This event, co-sponsored by the AGC (Associated General Contractors) of Georgia Workforce Alliance Committee and Wiregrass Tech, gave the students an opportunity to learn about all aspects of the construction industry while encouraging the selection of these jobs as a possible career path. This year's participation included over 500 middle and high school students from all the local regional schools as well as about 30 vendors.

Sabrina Monisky and Tina Worms attended Brasfield & Gorrie's annual fundraiser event in Atlanta on October 3rd. This chili cook-off raised money for Blue Sky Ministries which hosts week-long retreats for families with children who have pediatric cancer.

Austin Merriman and Philip Poole conducted arc flash training classes for maintenance technicians at Bold Formulators, LLC in Tifton, GA and Ocilla, GA on October 17th. Earlier this year, Philip also conducted the same class at Leticia Corporation in Valdosta, GA. These classes meet the NFPA-70E training requirement for employees working on or around electrical equipment.

On October 22nd-26th, Harvey Beard and Matt Vollrath attended
