Feature Job

Our feature job for this issue is Gestamp in McCalla, AL. Clayco served as the general contractor and their management team consisted of Ryan Carson – Project Manager and Ken Iberg – Superintendent. Ace's project team consisted of Jeremy Jones – Project Manager, Jimmy Cherry – Superintendent, Marvin Spence – Assistant Superintendent and John Densford, Casey Hardison and Nick Lisin – Designers/Estimators (Design-Build project).

Gestamp is an international automotive part stamping company. Their newest facility southwest of Birmingham is approximately 305,000 square feet with 280,000 square feet dedicated to manufacturing and processes with the remaining 25,000 square feet for administration and office space. The electrical design featured power distribution by way of a 15KV unit substation and 2,500-amp busduct mainly to the 50 processing robotic welding cells. Also included was LED lighting throughout (with daylight controls) and the low voltage systems like fire alarm and data/IT.

Ace Electric, Inc. would like to thank Clayco for the opportunity to work together on this project and we congratulate Gestamp on their new Southeast USA facility.

Happenings

Matt Erickson, Bradley Marsh and Jimye Taylor were recently awarded the "Ron Amerson Certificate of Commendation for Safety Excellence" from the AGC - Georgia Branch for having no lost time incidents on their jobsites and for exceptional safety performance during the 2016 calendar year. Congratulations to these fine leaders on their achievement.

On February 21st, several Ace employees from the Corporate Office and Prefab/Preconstruction Division participated in The American Heart Association's First Aid/CPR AED course. Thank you to Jarrold Carter, Brett Cole, Josh Cresong, Joe Crow, Amy Drew, Diane Drew, Brian Geary, Kelly Madsen and Lee Young for taking the time to attend this potentially lifesaving class.

Ace was a proud supporter of the Children's Advocacy Center's 17th annual clay shoot on February 25th by entering two teams. Team 1 consisted of Greg Farrar, Dale Flythe, Chris May, Bobby Watford and Jack Zeigler. Team 2 consisted of Brittany Carter, Kevin Cowart, William Kenyon, Clinton Zeigler and Jack Zeigler. Congratulations to Ace Team 2 for winning the B Class!

On March 3rd, Tom Beckett, Elbert Hurst, William Kenyon, Rob Stalvey and Bobby Watford attended a four-hour review of the major changes to the 2017 National Electrical Code at Yancey Caterpillar in Valdosta. The continuing education opportunity was provided through the Georgia Chapter of the IEC (Independent Electrical Contractors) and food was provided by Legrand.

Amber Bennett, Rueben Bennett, Brian Geary and Kelly Madsen represented Ace at the 2017 CEFGA Career Expo and Skills USA competition at the Georgia Convention Center in Atlanta on March 23rd – 24th. Brian also served as an interviewer for the skills competition for electricians.

Sarah and Bradley Marsh are the proud parents of a baby boy born on March 26th. Emmett Ray came into this world weighing 6 lbs. 11 oz. and measuring 19-¼ inches. Excited siblings include Lacey, Ethan and Scarlett. Congratulations to the Marsh family on your new addition.

Chris Awesome, a superintendent working out of the Atlanta Division, recently began teaching the first-year IEC Apprenticeship Class at the IEC headquarters in Atlanta. The IEC Apprenticeship Class is a four-year program where students become journeyman electricians through classroom learning and on-the-job training.
