Happenings

Congratulations to Ace's newest Journeyman Electricians from our Macon Division, Trey Thompson and Matthew Williams. Trey and Matthew graduated from the Independent Electrical Contractors Apprenticeship Program on October 31st. The curriculum requires students to complete a combination of classroom learning, labs and on-the-job training, normally over the course of four years. Trey and Matthew are now certified Journeyman Electricians in all 50 states. Great job, Trey and Matthew!

Several employees recently completed Ace's Pro-Start Classes in the Macon Division. Congratulations to attendees: Joseph Dunagan, Thomas Brown, Justin Bryant, Dylan Chastain, Jay Powell, Travis Scarborough, Sam Spaventa and Tyler Thomas. Pro-Start is a week-long "Electrical Trade 101 Boot Camp" consisting of both classroom instruction and lab modules designed to give participants a head start when beginning their career in the trade.

Congratulations to Caleb Wassman and Ashley Brooks who were married on December 14th at South Fulton Baptist Church in Fulton, TN. Best wishes to the newlyweds!

We are excited about the Fabrication, Design and Engineering (FD&E) Division's newest addition to the Ace fleet. In late December, FD&E rolled out the 2020 Freightliner Cascadia hooked to a 53' step deck trailer with a sliding tarp to transport materials and assemblies to Ace jobsites throughout multiple states. With this new rig, FD&E will be able to haul much larger loads while consuming less fuel. Ace team member James Everett is FD&E's primary driver of this new delivery rig.

On January 8th and 9th, 10 Ace Team Members representing four Ace locations participated in the fourth InterACE Orientation at the Home Office in Valdosta. The InterACE program educates and equips employees with the tools, training and information they'll need to be successful in their careers at Ace. Participants were Jimmy Cherry, Eric Emshoff, Addison Harris, Grant Herring, Andrew Murley, Greg Register, Chuck Tapley, Jessie Turley, Caleb Wassman and Daniel Wolford.
